

Perspectives

ond vote

mitations of the
i, and again, ex-
hose figures add
o similar school

s week may sig-
f work-to-clock,
ould be a wise
ccord is in sight,
ined by further-
clock rule, even
ne other unions
surely be ex-
ugh other means.
worth weighing
k-to-clock has a
re negotiations.
o often, the mea-
rally the support
ght seek.

rents support
orts. However,

Courtesy photo

'Can' do spirit

Brownie Troop 107 of Billerica poses with cat food, litter and toys collected for the Billerica Cat Care Coalition as part of a service project.

Bottom row, left to right, kneeling, are Haley Morris, Megan Mclanghlin, Corban Walsh (son of Leader Carol Walsh), Jaclyn Maffeo, Patricia Lyna, Patty Scroxtion.

Top row, left to right, standing are Carly Smith, Kierra Walsh, Vanessa Nogueira, and Nisha Patel with Leader Carol Walsh holding her younger son Rory Walsh. Brownie Troop 107 is a troop made up of third grade students from the town's elementary schools.